The year that was:

Debt:

In the first half of 2008-09, financial markets suffered the full might of the subprime-crisis that first broke-out in August 2007. World credit markets froze, major banks suffered huge losses and needed re-capitalization and financial markets went for a tail-spin. Global markets witnessed huge volatility until the world governments and central banks came together to stabilize the markets with injection of huge liquidity and aggressive rate cuts, pumping fresh capital in troubled banks and buying out their bad assets. Global economic momentum suffered massive set-back with major economies getting into recession and the emerging countries witnessing significant slowdown in growth rates. A blessing in disguise was sharp correction in commodity and oil prices. In second-half of 2008-09, following the easing of policy rates by major central banks and correction in commodity prices, inflation across the globe eased dramatically and interest rates declined, setting the ground for a massive rally in bond prices. With credit markets also opening back again, corporate spreads also contacted sharply from the multi-decade high that it hit earlier at the peak of the crisis. However, by Q4, the massive government stimulus for banks and economy resulted in higher fiscal deficit and larger government borrowings started to put pressure on long term bond yields.

FUTURE OUTLOOK:

DEBT OUTLOOK

Un-precedent measures, in recent quarters, by way of fiscal stimulus, re-capitalization, liquidity injection and rate -cuts by world governments and central banks, following the melt down in financial markets post the sub-prime crisis and amidst a sharp slowdown in economic momentum, have begun to bear results. As the economist have been saying, the green shoots are visible all over. Economic data has shown steady improvement and the financial markets have also stabilized. Equity and commodity markets have seen a sharp rally in the past few months demonstrating the optimism that has now replaced the extreme pessimism earlier.

However, one collateral damage of the massive fiscal stimulus has been the sharp spike in fiscal deficit. In India, Fiscal deficit for FY 2008-09 is pegged at 6.2% of GDP against initial budget estimate of 2.5%. Similarly Fiscal deficit for 2009-10 is projected at 5.5% of GDP. Inevitably, resultant larger government borrowing will put upward pressure on bond yields. Benchmark 10 year GOI yield, after hitting a multi year low below 5% in early Jan'09s has since hardened to hover in 6.75-7% range, a massive correction of 200bps + in a short time. Situation is similar across global market. For example, inspite of lowering the Fed rate to 0-0.25% band and buy-back of treasury securities by Fed, US 10 year treasury yields are currently around 3.75% rebounding from a low of 2.05% in Dec 08.

In India, like elsewhere, this is inspite of a significant easing of inflation (0.48% as of May 23'2009), multiple rate cuts and massive open market operations by RBI and with oil prices remaining low in recent months.

RBI's monetary policy stance remains explicitly accommodative. Liquidity in the system remains high. RBI has successfully blunted the upward pressure on interest rates through large open market operations. Till overseas capital flows resume again, continued RBI intervention and supportive underlying economic and inflationary environment should keep interest rates range bound although markets could be volatile. In the medium to long term, interest rates are likely to be stable with downward bias.

Schedule VIII - Statement of significant accounting policies of Tata Liquid Fund (TLF) and Notes forming part of the Accounts for the year ended 31st March, 2009.

A. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. INCOME RECOGNITION:

- a) Profit or loss on sale of investments is recognised on trade dates. The cost of investments sold is determined on "weighted average cost basis".
- b) Interest on investments is accounted on an accrual basis. Interest on an investment that is past due for three months is accrued and a full provision is made against all outstanding interest on that investment.
- c) Discounts / premiums to the redemption value on fixed income securities are amortised on a straight-line basis over the period upto redemption.
- d) Other income of a miscellaneous nature is accounted when it is received on grounds of prudence.

2. EXPENSES:

- a) Being a no load scheme, all expenses, excluding management fees, have been borne by Tata Asset Management Limited and Tata Trustee Company Private Limited. However with effect from 1st December, 2008 the scheme started to bear the expenses which are allocated in proportion to the net assets.
- b) Expenses not identifiable with any particular scheme are generally allocated to the schemes in proportion to their net assets. With effect from 1st October, 2008 Registrar's fees and expenses have been allocated to the schemes in proportion to the number of live folios in the schemes.

3. INVESTMENTS:

Purchase and sale of investments are recorded on the date of the transaction, at cost and sale price respectively, after considering brokerage, commission, stamp charges and any charge customarily included in the broker note.

4. PORTFOLIO VALUATION FOR NAV CALCULATION

i. Traded Securities (Other than Floating Rate Debt Securities):

Traded Securities are valued at year-end closing market rates on the principal stock exchange on which the security is traded (excluding accrued interest, if any, which is accounted separately).

In the absence of a quoted price on the valuation date for debt securities (other than Government Securities), the last available quoted price within a period of fifteen days prior to the valuation date is used for valuation purposes.

ii. Thinly Traded Securities (Other than Floating Rate Debt Securities):

The thinly traded debt securities are those securities (other than Government securities) if on the valuation date, there are no individual trades in those securities in marketable lots (presently Rs.5 crores) on the principal stock exchange or any other stock exchange. These have been valued on the basis of valuation principles laid down by The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for the same.

iii. Non-Traded Securities:

- a. Non-Traded/Thinly Traded Debt Securities/Asset Backed Securities (other than Floating Rate Debt Securities) of over 182 days to maturity are valued in good faith on a yield to maturity basis by Tata Asset Management Limited (TAML).

The non – traded debt securities have been classified by TAML as “investment grade” and “below investment grade” as at 31st March, 2009. The values applied by TAML for “investment grade” debt securities are on the basis of valuation yields determined by Credit Rating Information Services of India Limited (CRISIL). In the opinion of TAML, these yields determine fair and reasonable values and such basis of valuation is approved by the Tata Trustee Company Private Limited.

These securities have been valued on the basis of valuation principles laid down by SEBI for the same.

Non – traded debt securities with residual maturity of upto 182 days are valued on the basis of amortisation (cost plus accrued interest till the beginning of the day plus the difference between the redemption value (inclusive of interest) and the cost spread uniformly over the remaining maturity period of the instrument).

This basis of valuation is in accordance with SEBI guidelines.

b. Valuation of non traded/thinly traded debt securities with floating rate of interest upto 182 Days to the Interest Reset Date/Maturity Date :

The non-traded / thinly traded floating rate debt securities with a residual maturity / next reset date upto 182 days are valued on the basis of amortisation (cost plus accrued interest till the beginning of the day plus the difference between the redemption value and the cost spread uniformly over the remaining maturity / interest reset period of the instruments) in the absence of any other standard benchmarks in the market.

c. Floating Rate Debt Securities with Put/Call options :

The floating rate debt securities with put/call options shall be valued in terms of the Valuation Guidelines specified above taking into consideration the next interest rate reset date instead of the final maturity date in the absence of any other guidelines from SEBI.

The aggregate fair value of these non-traded “investment grade” debt securities as at 31st March, 2009 is Rs.6,448,133,464/- (previous year Rs. 5,472,887,852/-). The scheme does not invest in “below investment grade” debt securities. These balances exclude redemption proceeds due but not received Rs.Nil(previous year Rs.Nil).

iv. Money Market Securities :

Money Market instruments which are not traded are valued on the basis of amortisation (cost plus accrued interest till the beginning of the day plus the difference uniformly amortised over the remaining maturity period of the instrument).

For Money Market Instruments which are traded, the difference between the traded price and the cost plus accrued interest is booked as unrealised gain or loss on that day and from the next day the unrealised gain or loss is amortised over the remaining period to maturity in such a manner that on the maturity date, the value of security matches the face value.

v. Asset Backed Securities :

Asset backed securities in the form of Pass-Through Certificates (non coupon bearing) are valued at discounted value of future cash inflows, whereas coupon bearing Pass-Through Certificates are valued at cost.

vi. CBLO Investment:

CBLO investments are valued at cost.

vii. Reverse Repo Investment :

Investment bought on Repo basis are valued at cost.

viii. Unrealised Gain / Loss in value of Investments :

Following the issue of the Guidance Note on Accounting for Investments in the Financial Statements of Mutual Funds by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, the appreciation / diminution in investments is worked out on individual basis. The value of diminution as at the year end is reflected in the Revenue Account. Unrealised appreciation as at the year end is also routed through the Revenue Account but is reduced from the distributable income at the time of income distribution.

5. INCOME EQUALISATION RESERVE :

Income Equalisation Reserve is being maintained by crediting / (debiting) the equalisation account in respect of sale / (repurchase) of units by an appropriate amount which represents the distributable income at the time of sale / (repurchase). It is reflected in the Revenue Account after the net excess / deficit of the scheme is determined.

6. UNIT PREMIUM RESERVE :

On repurchase / redemption / resale of units, the difference between the unit face value and the NAV (after adjusting income equalisation reserve) is disclosed as "Unit Premium Reserve".

Schedule VII - Statement of significant accounting policies of Tata Floating Rate Short Term Fund (TFRSTF) and Notes forming part of the Accounts for the year ended 31st March, 2009.

A. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. INCOME RECOGNITION:

- a) Profit or loss on sale of investments is recognised on trade dates. The cost of investments sold is determined on “weighted average cost basis”.
- b) Interest on investments is accounted on an accrual basis. Interest on an investment that is past due for three months is accrued and a full provision is made against all outstanding interest on that investment.
- c) Discounts / premiums to redemption value on fixed income securities are amortised on a straight-line basis over the period upto redemption.
- d) Other income of a miscellaneous nature is accounted when it is received on grounds of prudence.

2. EXPENSES:

- a) All expenses are accounted on an accrual basis.
- b) Expenses not identifiable with any particular scheme are generally allocated to the schemes in proportion to their net assets. With effect from 1st October, 2008 Registrar’s fees and expenses have been allocated to the schemes in proportion to the number of live folios in the schemes.

3. INVESTMENTS:

Purchase and sale of investments are recorded on the date of the transaction, at cost and sale price respectively, after considering brokerage, commission, stamp charges and any charge customarily included in the broker note.

PORTFOLIO VALUATION FOR NAV CALCULATION

i. Traded Securities (Other than Floating Rate Debt Securities) :

Traded Securities are valued at year-end closing market rates on the principal stock exchange on which the security is traded (excluding accrued interest, if any, which is accounted separately).

In the absence of a quoted price on the valuation date for debt securities (other than Government Securities), the last available quoted price within a period of fifteen days prior to the valuation date is used for valuation purposes.

ii. Thinly Traded Securities (Other than Floating Rate Debt Securities) :

Debt Securities (other than Government Securities) are considered as thinly traded if on the valuation date , there are no individual trades in those securities in marketable lots (presently Rs.5 Crores) on the principal stock exchange or any other stock exchange. These have been valued on the basis of valuation principals laid down by The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for the same.

iii. Non-Traded Securities :

- a. Non-Traded/Thinly Traded Debt Securities/Asset Backed Securities (other than Floating Rate Debt Securities) of over 182 days to maturity are valued in good faith on a yield to maturity basis by Tata Asset Management Limited (TAML).

The non – traded debt securities have been classified by TAML as “investment grade” and “below investment grade” as at 31st March, 2009. The values applied by TAML for “investment grade” debt securities are on the basis of valuation yields determined by Credit Rating Information Services of India Limited (CRISIL). A. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1. INCOME RECOGNITION:

- a) Profit or loss on sale of investments is recognised on trade dates. The cost of investments sold is determined on “weighted average cost basis”.
- b) Interest on investments is accounted on an accrual basis. Interest on an investment that is past due for three months is accrued and a full provision is made against all outstanding interest on that investment.
- c) Discounts / premiums to the redemption value on fixed income securities are amortised on a straight-line basis over the period upto redemption.
- d) Other income of a miscellaneous nature is accounted when it is received on grounds of prudence.

2. EXPENSES:

- a) All expenses are accounted on an accrual basis.
- b) Expenses not identifiable with any particular scheme are generally allocated to the schemes in proportion to their net assets. With effect from 1st October, 2008 Registrar’s fees and expenses have been allocated to the schemes in proportion to the number of live folios in the schemes.

3. INVESTMENTS:

Purchase and sale of investments are recorded on the date of the transaction, at cost and sale price respectively, after considering brokerage, commission, stamp charges and any charge customarily included in the broker note.

i. Traded Securities (Other than Floating Rate Debt Securities):

Traded Securities are valued at year-end closing market rates on the principal stock exchange on which the security is traded (excluding accrued interest, if any, which is accounted separately).

In the absence of a quoted price on the valuation date for debt securities (other than Government Securities), the last available quoted price within a period of fifteen days prior to the valuation date is used for valuation purposes.

ii. Thinly Traded Securities (Other than Floating Rate Debt Securities):

The thinly traded debt securities are those securities (other than Government securities) if on the valuation date, there are no individual trades in those securities in marketable lots (presently Rs.5 crores) on the principal stock exchange or any other stock exchange. These are valued on the basis of valuation principles laid down by SEBI for the same.

iii. Non-Traded Securities:

- a. Non-Traded/Thinly Traded Debt Securities/Asset Backed Securities (other than Floating Rate Debt Securities) of over 182 days to maturity are valued in good faith on a yield to maturity basis by Tata Asset Management Limited (TAML).

The non – traded debt securities have been classified by TAML as “investment grade” and “below investment grade” as at 31st March,2009. The values applied by TAML for “investment grade” debt securities are on the basis of valuation yields determined by Credit Rating Information Services of India Limited (CRISIL). In the opinion of TAML, these yields determine fair and reasonable values and such basis of valuation is approved by the Tata Trustee Company Private Limited.

These securities have been valued on the basis of valuation principles laid down by SEBI for the same.

Non – traded debt securities with residual maturity of upto 182 days are valued on the basis of amortisation (cost plus accrued interest till the beginning of the day plus the difference between the redemption value (inclusive of interest) and the cost spread uniformly over the remaining maturity period of the instrument).

This basis of valuation is in accordance with SEBI guidelines.

b. Valuation of non traded/thinly traded debt securities with floating rate of interest upto 182 Days to the Interest Reset Date/Maturity Date :

c. Floating Rate Debt Securities with Put/Call options :

The floating rate debt securities with put/call options shall be valued in terms of the Valuation Guidelines specified above taking into consideration the next interest rate reset date instead of the final maturity date in the absence of any other guidelines from SEBI.

5. INCOME EQUALISATION RESERVE :

Income Equalisation Reserve is being maintained by crediting / (debiting) the equalisation account in respect of sale / (repurchase) of units by an appropriate amount which represents the distributable income at the time of sale / (repurchase).
