Allocation to G-Secs

The fund has taken significant allocation to G-Secs. G-Sec & T-Bills will remain part of the core portfolio, to impart liquidity as well as trading opportunities. We find that with the fall in spreads, the risk-reward proposition of SOV papers have improved.

Why Invest in the Tata Money Market Fund?

Yields of shorter-term money market instruments (3-6 months) are currently at suitable levels. The fund offers an opportunity to invest in a high-quality portfolio that endeavors to generate returns (primarily through accruals) with low volatility.
